IONTO-COMED introduces new innovative cosmetic couch

Karlsruhe, 05.04.2022: For over 40 years, IONTO-COMED has been pursuing the goal of meeting the needs of cosmeticians and facilitating their work with suitable products. With the introduction of a new generation of cosmetic couches in 2020, the brand has once again succeeded. The newest member in this range is the IONTO-DYNAMOVE C2.

Just like its predecessor, the IONTO-DYNAMOVE C1, the IONTO-DYNAMOVE C2 offers maximum comfort and treatment ergonomics in the smallest possible space. As the youngest family member of the new generation of treatment couches, it is characterized by a particular stability and flexibility and also enables classic massage treatments.

A highlight of the IONTO-DYNAMOVE C2 is the "Beauty-Comfort-Cushion", which gives lying persons optimal relaxation as well as a pleasant wellness experience. In addition, the attachment of optional castors makes it possible to move the couch at any time without any problems. Other advantages include customizable decorative panels and upholstery colors, a 2-in-1 massage head section and an additional heating option.

"With our treatment couches, we want to create the basis for beauticians to achieve a high level of customer satisfaction. Therefore, we work every day to optimize our couches. Our new IONTO-DYNAMOVE C2 combines the functions of a classic beauty couch with the feeling of a wellness treatment." - Julian La Fontaine, Managing Director IONTO Health & Beauty GmbH.
